ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

Welcome!

CIVICUS curated this directory of donors to help civil society groups, organisations, movements and individual activists from around the world, especially those in the global south, who are constantly looking for resources to sustain their work but often face several barriers to access information on relevant donors and funding opportunities.

This directory lists progressive donors offering funding and non-financial support to civil society, including small and even informal groups and individual activists. They have agreed to be featured in this directory.

We have created complete profiles intending to simplify your search for donors that align with your work and needs. In this process, we had the valuable input from members of the CIVICUS alliance, which helped us improve our first drafts of the directory. We want to give a special thanks to Ayomikun Olugbode from the Inspired Youth Network, Nigeria; Bhekumusa Moyo from Word Smash Poetry, Zambia; Michelle Gallo from Equidad de Género: Ciudadanía, Trabajo y Familia A.C., Mexico; and Yalkiria Pineda from the Centro Especializado de Atención a la Mujer, Nicaragua.

This directory is available in English, French and Spanish, and will be reviewed and updated annually. Please check our website for updated versions.

DISCLAIMER: The information provided in this directory is current as of the date it was compiled for publication. Please note that some of this information may be outdated by the moment you read it. We encourage you to review the donor’s website or contact them to verify details regarding their funding and support opportunities.
HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

1. Review the donor profiles listed under the specific region where you work and also review donors listed in the Global chapter. Our list of profiles is organised according to the region where donors provide support: Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Global, Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East and North Africa and the United States of America. Donors in the Global category provide resources to activists worldwide or in several regions.

2. Check out which donors align with your work and needs. Each profile provides the name of the donor, a brief description of their work, what countries or regions they support and their contact information. To help you better identify whether the donors fund individuals or groups with your characteristics and needs, we added details about the thematic categories (areas of work) and groups supported by each donor, the types and amounts of financial and non-financial resources provided, who can apply to the opportunities and how. Please note that all amounts in this directory are expressed in US dollars.

3. Once you spot one or more donors that could support your work, use their contact information and visit their websites or other platforms to see the specific funding opportunities that you could apply for.

4. Sharing is caring! Share this directory with others who may find it useful.

5. Help us improve and grow the directory. If you want to suggest an improvement or recommend a donor we could add to this list, please email us at csresourcing@civicus.org.
GLOSSARY OF KEY TERMS

Core/flexible funding: “Core funding” is financial support that allows organisations to cover their basic “core” organisational and administrative costs, which are not linked to the implementation of specific projects. This includes, for example, rent, training, institutional strengthening and non-staff salaries. “Flexible funding” often refers to the above, but also to funding that can be allocated with flexibility to project activities, as long as it is used towards an agreed mission and outcome.

Fiscal sponsor: a tax-exempt entity that sponsors a non-registered group or organisation to provide them with administrative, accounting, fundraising and legal services for a project.

Invitation-only applications: we use this term to indicate that funding proposals are only accepted from individuals, organisations or groups invited to apply by the donor or their chosen partners. In these cases, donors do not offer resources through open, published calls and do not accept unsolicited proposals.

Published calls: we use this term to indicate that the resources are offered by the donors through specific published calls for funding proposals or other support. These are announced periodically, have specific requirements and deadlines for submission.

Project funding: financial support given for the implementation of a specific set of activities related to a specific project and within a specific time duration. Project funding is considered to be more restricted than “flexible funding”.

Rapid response funding: financial support that is granted in a short period of time to support activists’ response to attacks, sudden emergencies, crisis or advocacy opportunities, and to avoid and mitigate threats.

Registered organisation: organisation duly registered under the relevant legislation of the jurisdiction in which it is situated.

Seed funding: financial support offered to start/germinate an activity - a research project, the development of a solution, a social enterprise, among others.

Unregistered organisation: organisation which is not registered under the relevant legislation of jurisdiction in which it is situated.

Unsolicited proposals accepted: we use this term to indicate that donors accept funding requests or proposals not linked to a specific published call for proposals issued by themselves. In this case, donors are usually open to receiving and considering funding requests and ideas throughout the year.
