

Job Description

Job Title:	Civic Space Research Intern
Cluster:	Civic Space Research Cluster
Salary:	USD 1200 pm stipend	Contract Type:	5 months
Location:	Remote
Reports to:	Civic Space Research Lead
Direct Reports:	n/a
Job Role
Role Overview:	The role aims to support the strengthening of the Monitor's global research collaboration, in particular, to support the implementation of the Monitor's civic space incident tool, an analysis tool that aim to record the details of each of the civic space incidents that are published on the Monitor and overall data analysis ahead of the publication our report People Power Under Attack.
Areas of Responsibilities	Key Activities
Research and data analysis	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support the implementation of the Monitor's civic space incidents tool • Lead the data entry and record the civic space incidents. • Other tasks related to the furtherance of CIVICUS research on civic space, as assigned.
Support the development of partners relations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support the strengthening of the Monitor's research partner collaboration. • Support the identification of partners knowledge and information needs.
Communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support the team communication strategy and information sharing through social media and other platforms
Person Specification
Education, Language & Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pursuing or completed bachelor's degree in international relations, political science, or a related field • Excellent written and spoken English.
Essential Knowledge, skills and Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge or experience conducting research on human rights. • An understanding of international human rights frameworks related to fundamental freedoms of association, peaceful assembly and expression.
Desirable Knowledge, skills and Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Proficiency in any UN language is desirable 		